

What reasons or features if any make you prefer to use WeChat to other apps?

Wechat offers the most convenient if not the only way to connect with my family members in China, especially parents who are not familiar with other methods.

2. My aging mother (90+ years old) can talk or leave message with anyone in the family without typing.

3. My aging mother can read her grandchildren's English message or recording through an instant Chinese translator.

has everything you need on one app.

Help me keeping connections with my family and friends. Also a way to know local Chinese community activities.

I can easily communicate with my family member, like sister, brother, mom..., and old friends.

I can find most of my friends from China; Red envelop; instant Chinese to English translation;

I do not prefer wechat.

I do NOT like WeChat more than other apps. All other social media apps are banned in China!

I have to use Wechat because Chinese in China do not access other alternatives.

I have used Wechat for 12 years in building and maintaining good and strong personal relationships, together with my long-time friends and family members in both US and China.

I like the 'circle of friends'.

I use WeChat primarily for communicating with family in China. Since this is the most popular communication tool among ordinary Chinese people and by my family, it is convenient to use it for keeping in touch with family members in China.

I'd rather not to use it, but most Chinese friends or family members use it I have no other choice.

In app translation. The ease of communication with people in China.

In Chinese language, it is easy for me to read news. Easy to talk to my family and friends in China

It allows quick communication with my friends in China because all my friends in China are using WeChat.

It contains the richest resource in Chinese language. No other alternative apps has the same amount of resource.

It also integrated information from other platforms which no other alternative apps can do today. It is the only social network app I am using to connect to my family and friends inside and outside the United States.

It has all kind of information and closely connected Chinese American together.

It has all the functions (that WhatsApp, Twitter, and Instagram have) in one place

It has many user friendly features that other apps simply don't have.

The Chinese version allows me to connect with my family and relatives who don't speak English.

In addition, many Chinese Americans feel more comfortable to communicate in Chinese because they can express themselves better in their native language.

It is a common used tool to communicate internally

It is a convenient, easy communication tool and has lots of functions such as calling and videoing with family in China, sending pictures to friends, reading articles about health, history, philosophy etc.

It is a social networking tool where I can reach all my family members and friends in China. It is also a great tool to organize events for local Chinese communities, which include some cannot read English well.

It is available to both me in the states and my family and friends in China. It has superior features than other apps.

It is free; it connects my families all over the world; it is powerful in terms of language capacities (both English and Chinese); it is easy to use; it is very flexible too.

It is the only handy and popular media for communication with friends and relatives.

It is the only social media app that is widely used by my relatives and friends in China. Its innovative platform allows me to chat with friends and to share my moments.

It is the preferred app of Chinese citizens. It's easy to connect with friends and family.

It is very convenient to find people I need to communicate with

It's convenient and easy to use, plus all my friends and relatives use it.

It's convenient for me and my family who live in China.

It's easy to use and many people are using it

It's more convenient than any other apps especially when we contact our relatives and friends in China

It's most commonly used by friends and family members.

It's not about preference. China blocks other apps and monopolies WeChat

It's the best app.

It's the best known and most convenient app to my family in China.

It's the most widely used daily tool in China and among Chinese Americans
It's the only way I can connect with my family and friends back in China
It's very convenient, most effective and less instructive than any other app.
It's very convenient, most effective and less instructive than any other app.
It's convenient. No other apps can replace it
It's easy to communicate with family and friends.
Its flexibility and functionality
Its functions and convenience in communications with relative in China
Its functions. Most important, families in China cannot learn English or a new app that is not user friendly anymore
It's more convenient to use.
It's not the functions of Wechat. It is because Chinese government did not allow other options for People in China to use. So we need to use WebChat to connect with People in China and new immigrants from China.
its popularity among family members, relatives and friends
It's simple to use. It builds community. It has no ads.
It's the only app that allows me to connect to all of my family, friends, and other contacts in China. Other apps are either difficult to use or banned.
Its the only app to connect with my family, relatives, classmates, friends and business colleagues, customers and prospects in China as all of my relationships are on it and can't move to other apps. It's also the preferred app to communicate with my contacts outside China for its convenience and free of charge and unmatched quality in calls and video conferencing. It's my lifeline that I can't live without.
